

William Penn Newsletter 18th July 2017

Best Wishes for the Summer

As this is the last newsletter for this academic year, please accept our best wishes for a restful and relaxing summer. We send good luck to those moving on at the end of term and we look forward to seeing new and familiar faces on the first day of the Autumn Term which is Monday 4th September.

Non-Uniform Friday 21st July

Friday 21st July will be a non-uniform day in return for cupcakes and biscuits for the barbecue on Saturday 22nd July.

Year 6 Message

Bella in Year 6 would like to ask whether anyone has child friendly books or toys for a stall at the barbecue on Saturday.

Bags and Belonging

Please make sure that your child has all their belongings and PE kit at the end of term as this makes it much easier to deep clean the school.

Book Amnesty

We are still missing a large amount of our scheme reading books. It will cost a great deal of money to replace these and this obviously means that we can't spend funds on other items for the children. Please have a search at home and bring in any that have accidentally spent more time away from school than intended – thank you. Please note that no reading books will be sent home after Wednesday of this week.

End of Year Leavers' Assembly Reminder

Please be reminded that the Year 6 Leavers' Assembly will take place on Tuesday 25th July at 2.15pm. Whilst priority is given to the parents of pupils in Year 6, parents from other year groups are welcome.

Safeguarding Update
