

William Penn Newsletter 22nd March 2017

Staff Update

We are pleased to inform you that Katie Passfield has been appointed as the class teacher in Cadbury for the YearR/Year1 class for September 2017. Katie was very impressive at interview and we look forward to welcoming her to the school. She is keen to spend time in school before September so there will be chances to meet her ahead of the new term.

Easter Egg Hunt and Easter Bonnets

This year we will be holding the Easter Egg hunt with Mrs Lutman kindly coordinating the event. We would ask for donations of small eggs that can be made in to bags of eggs for each pupil on the 30th March in return for wearing non-uniform. If your child has food allergies/dietary preferences, please could you supply a small named bag of eggs for your child.

The actual hunt will take place on Tuesday 4th April and we will also be holding our traditional Easter bonnet parade on that day too. Your child is invited to make and bring a hat/bonnet for the parade and there will be prizes in each class. We would also ask for donations of larger eggs for use as prizes please.

Red Nose Day Reminder – Non-Uniform this Friday

Red Nose Day this year is on Friday 24th March. We would like to take part in the fundraising and have made the day a non-uniform/fancy dress day for those that would like to take part. We know that some children have already made costumes in preparations for World Book Day earlier this month and this would be an ideal occasion to wear them. We will be collecting donations for Red Nose Day and would suggest a £1 donation for taking part.

Pupil Achievements

Congratulations to Josh Bernardi who has recently passed his Piano Preparatory Test. Well done. If you have any pupil achievements that you would like mentioned in the newsletter, please e-mail the office: office@williampenn.w-sussex.sch.uk
